Star impressionist's show

INTERNATIONAL entertainer Peter Kaye, the man who has been billed as the Ultimate Impressionist, will be the main attraction during the charity dinner on Wednesday organised in conjunction with the launch of the Malaysian Liver Foundation.

The dinner, to be held at the Sunway Lagoon Resort Hotel in Bandar Sunway, will be attended by the Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad, who is the foundation's patron.

Kaye, in his act, will bring to life some of the personalities who include Boris Yelstin, Bill Clinton, George Burns, Sean Connery, Sylvester Stallone, Arnold Schwarzenegger and Lt Columbo.

Other entertainment scheduled for the evening include Yusni Hamid and singing troupe The Brothers-in-Law as well as Filipino band Stardust.

The cost of the tables for the charity dinner, where donations are tax-exempt, are priced at RM10,000, RM8,000, RM5,000 and RM3,000.

Those who make donations of RM50,000 and above will have the privilege of presenting their cheques personally to the Prime Minister on stage.

The trustees of the foundation are Tun Mohammad Hanif Omar, Datuk Paduka Dr Saleha Mohd Ali and SungeiWay Group president Tan Sri Dr Jeffrey Cheah.

The charity dinner is sponsored by the SungeiWay Group and co-organised by the Lions Club of Kuala Lumpur South.

For more information on the dinner, call Kristine or Kong of the foundation at 03-2543455/566 or 2530200, or fax 2530900.
