

23/11/1998

Dinner to mark Manchester Week

A GALA dinner held in conjunction with Manchester Week - from Nov 7 to 14 - was held at the Carcosa Seri Negara recently.

The Manchester Week was targeted at presenting its culture to Malaysia through a mix of deejays, fashion designers, footballers and chefs.

Present were Malaysian AIDS Council president Datin Paduka Marina Mahathir, Marketing Manchester deputy chief executive Lis Phelan, its international Media Centre director Keith Wilson, public relations officer Daniel Kennedy, and British High Commission deputy director for trade and investment Steve Buckley and its trade manager Angie Yen.

Also there were Alstom Export sales manager Nick Graham, Daewood Engineering and Construction executive managing director Song Jeom-Jong, Chase Perdana senior manager Aruna Rajah, UIE Malaysia plantation manager Jeff Cooper, National Power project manager Mike Baker and wife Stephanie, British Council deputy director Michael Willson and wife Christine, University of Salford head of department Ron Cook and course leader Lucy Jones, and Robbert vande Griendt.

(END)