DR MAHATHIR OPENS UTUSAN MELAYU'S NEW PRINTING COMPLEX

BANGI, July 18 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad today opened "Sri Utusan", the new RM110 million ultra-modern printing complex of Utusan Melayu (Malaysia) Berhad, here.

The complex is equipped with remote printing technology and capable of printing 70,000 copies per hour.

Publications of the Utusan Melayu group, operating at its Jalan Chan Sow Lim headquarters, and the Malaysian edition of the International Herald Tribune, are printed at the complex.

Utusan Melayu (Malaysia) Berhad has been granted the right to print the Malaysian edition of the International Herald Tribune, from its base in Paris.

The opening of the complex coincides with Utusan's 60th anniversary celebrations.
