Also awaiting visitors is a modified version of the Hard Rock Cafe, while music fans will be treated to Dangdut performances tomorrow night and appearances by the Alleycats and Innuendo on Sunday.

Sympo 98 will be launched on Monday by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

A special board games corner offering Scrabble, Chinese chequers and Chess; a music-composing computer, a food court offering Malaysian and Western cuisine and Disneyland musicals are other highlights awaiting visitors.

Located on a 4.8ha site about 500 metres from the National Sports Complex in Bukit Jalil, the centre is open between noon and midnight, from Mondays to Thursdays and between 10am and midnight, from Fridays to Sundays.

Entrance fees are RM5 for each child and RM10 for adults.
