High time we started Asean News

Yeoh Seng Hong

THE time is right for us to launch "Asean News". We have such an excellent cadre of newscasters that we would do them injustice if we do not put them to use.

There is Geoffrey Nicholson who is the epitome of an English gentleman. The cherubic Mahathir Lokman, who reads with the speed of lightning, is brimming with confidence and good cheer. The Sabah Spitfire, Frieda Liew, rattles off with a rat-tat-tat-tat. The calm and rational approach of Harjit Singh Hullon, comes across well.

Linking up with our Asean counterparts and forming an Asean Television Inc. will bring closer the day when Asean News will supplant CNN here.
