Kit Siang ready to accept wager

PENANG, Sun. - Opposition leader Lim Kit Siang said today he was prepared to accept a wager with Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad that there would be no general election in the next six months.

Lim said the wager was on if Dr Mahathir was prepared to bet 10 sen that there would be no general elections within this year.

Lim was responding to a statement by Dr Mahathir that there would be no general election in the next six months as predicted by Lim.
