

MALAYSIA NANBAN HIGHLIGHTS

01 JULY 1998

1. KUALA LUMPUR: The appointment of Tun Daim Zainuddin as a Cabinet minister will strengthen the collective efforts to take the Malaysian economy to a speedier recovery, said Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim. Lead story
2. SEPANG: The Kuala Lumpur International Airport here handled its first domestic flight yesterday which flight MH1432 to Langkawi took off safely with Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad on board. Page 1
3. KUALA LUMPUR: Former Deputy Prime Minister Tun Abdul Ghafar Baba and son Mohd Tamrin have been declared as bankrupts by the High Court for failing to settle RM2 million they owed businessman Datuk Choong Kok Min. Page 1
4. GRIK, Perak: Deputy Home Minister Datuk Mohd Tajol Rosli Ghazali said no decision has been made on the fate of foreign workers from India working in Indian restaurants in the country. Page 1
5. KUALA LUMPUR: Human Resources Minister Datuk Lim Ah Lek said the unions should extend their services to non-members to attract more workers to join up. Page 2
6. KUALA LUMPUR: Education Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said 10 private colleges have been given the approval to conduct twinning programmes entirely in this country. Page 3
7. SEPANG: Malaysia Airlines (MAS) executive chairman Tan Sri Tajuddin Ramli said MAS, one of the major airlines to provide services at the just opened Kuala Lumpur International Airport, may face some initial problems at the beginning but will overcome soon to provide an excellent service. Page 3
8. PETALING JAYA: Malaysians who have applied for the high quality identity card before last February can collect them by August, Deputy Home Minister Ong Ka Ting said. Page 10

BERNAMA