

NEW STRAITS TIMES HIGHLIGHTS 2 LAST
17 MARCH 1998

6. KUALA LUMPUR: Asean countries should formulate laws and regulations to combat pollution within their borders to avert transborder environmental disaster like the haze. page 4;

7. KUALA LANGAT: The Selangor Government will help promote Paya Indah, the Malaysian Wetland Sanctuary in Bukit Changggang, Menteri Besar Datuk Abu Hassan Omar said. page 4;

8. MERSING: The Johor Government wants fishing enthusiasts to set up an association to facilitate the running of annual sport fishing evnts. page 8;

9. KUCHING: Universiti Malaysia Sarawak launched its Chair of Dayak Studies in recognition of the importance and unique position of the Dayak community. page 9;

10. KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysia will not stand aside and watch while the rest of the world races towards technological development, Minister of Energy, Telecommunications and Posts Datuk Leo Moggie said. page 12;

11. KUALA LUMPUR: The Malaysia-European Union Joint Seminar: European and The Islamic World to be opened by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad on March 24 will showcase Malaysia as a role model for other countries. page 13 --Bernama

17/03/98 09-56MST

BNS