

21/02/1998

Old Boys get together

Bhavani Krishna Iyer

WITH the festive spirit still in the air, the Sultan Abdul Hamid Old Collegians Association organised a grand get-together at the Bukit Kiara Resort in Kuala Lumpur recently.

Guests-of-honour at the function were Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad, an old boy of the college, and his wife Datin Seri Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali.

The evening began with the Prime Minister meeting members of the association and their families.

Present to welcome Dr Mahathir and Dr Siti Hasmah were the association's office-bearers comprising president Tan Sri Tajuddin Ramli, who is also Malaysia Airlines chairman and his wife Puan Sri Faridah Abdullah, vice-president Datuk Abdul Halim Abdullah, secretary Syed Khadzil Al Jaffree, treasurer Abdul Hamid Mohd Hassan and committee members Mohd Sherif Arshad, Ahmad Ghiti Mohd Daud, Mohd Fakarudin Abdullah, Azizan Azmi, Abdul Aziz Azizan and Idris Che Long.

Among guests at the function were Zulfadzli Yusoff from Harian Sdn Bhd and Banseke Human Resource Development Centre Sdn Bhd executive director Kol (Rtd) Md Zanib Zakaria, Petronas Gas Berhad senior manager Lt-Kol (Rtd) Abdul Rahman Khir and lawyer Mohd Zahir Osman.

Others present were Automotive Corporation (M) Sdn Bhd customer service manager Tengku Adnan Abdullah, Denso (M) Sdn Bhd corporate affairs and marketing director Lim Tiong Siang and Department of Co-operative Development director-general Datuk Syed Sidi Idid.

Seen also were Metacorp Berhad chairman Datuk Dr Mohamed Ishak Mohamed Arif, Petronas Management Training Sdn Bhd managing director and chief executive officer Ibrahim Hassan, Transwater Corporation Berhad executive chairman Datuk Wan Adli Datuk Wan Ibrahim and wife Datin Roseni Hussain.

Present too were Impressive Communications chief executive Abdul Halim Karim, Mukti Mahamood from S.J. Binateknik Sdn Bhd, and Puan Sri Minuira Sabki of The Attic Flowers & Gifts.

(END)