PROTON PERDANA FOR NURUL HUDA, HIDAYAT

KUALA LUMPUR, Oct 3 (Bernama) -- National shooter Nurul Huda Baharin and weightlifter Muhammad Hidayat Hamidon Arbi received the highest award of a Proton Perdana each from the National Sports Council (NSC) at the Premier Dinner at the National Stadium, Bukit Jalil here tonight.

The award was in recognition of their efforts in achieving Commonwealth Games records at the last meet here in September.

Nurul Huda, who suffered an arm injury following an accident before the 16th Commonwealth Games, proved her determination and capability when she emerged as the winner in the women's Air Rifle event with a new record of 494.8 points.

Nurul Huda also provided the only gold medal in the shooting competition which also contributed five silver and five bronze medals for Malaysia.

Besides the car, Nurul Huda also received RM90,000 in cash under the NSC Sports Award Scheme today.

Hidayat's name is synonymous with weightlifting when he proved himself at the 19th SEA Games in Jakarta last year. However, this time around Hidayat shocked the crowd at the Exhibition Centre at the Mines Resort here when he collected the gold medal with a new record of 167kg in the Clean & Jerk event.

Hidayat also won the silver in the overall event with a total lift of 295kg.

Hidayat received a Proton Perdana and RM130,000 in cash.

The other athletes who contributed medals to the national contingent at the 16th Commonwealth Games also received their cash awards under the NSC Sports Award Scheme.

The awards were presented by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.
