

SABAH NEWSPAPERS HIGHLIGHTS
25 MAY 1998

BORNEO MAIL:

1. KOTA KINABALU: The seventh Sabah International Triathlon ended with surprises and disappointments at Likas Bay here, yesterday. Page 1
2. KOTA KINABALU: The government is planning to build another clinic in Putatan as the polyclinic there is unable to cope with the medical needs of the districts residents. Page 3
3. LABUAN: The current management of Sabah Shipyard Sdn Bhd has come under fire from the Saship Employees' Representative Action Committee. Page 3

BORNEO POST:

1. KOTA KINABALU: The Malaysian Chinese Association (MCA) should be represented in the State cabinet, said its Sabah secretary, Chau Tet Onn. Page 1
2. KOTA KINABALU: Chief Minister-designate Tan Sri Bernard Dompok yesterday left for Kuala Lumpur to meet the Prime Minister to discuss on the new State Cabinet. Page 1
3. KOTA KINABALU: Kinabalu Member of Parliament Henrynus Amin has urged Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) to increase the allocation of places for qualified Sabah student for the year 1998/99 intake in view of the high cost of sending students to pursue pre-university or matriculation courses in Peninsular Malaysia. Page 2

DAILY EXPRESS:

1. KOTA KINABALU: The Fisheries Department confirmed Sunday the presence of Red Tide in some parts of the West Coast of Sabah. However the East Coast is not affected. Page 1
2. KOTA KINABALU: Chief Minister-designate Tan Seri Bernard Dompok is scheduled to meet Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad today. Page 1
3. KOTA KINABALU: Parti Bersekutu renewed its challenge to the Yayasan Sabah Board of Trustees to a public debate on issues pertaining to the foundation's affairs. Page 2

NEW SABAH TIMES:

1. KOTA KINABALU: The Rungus community has also requested for a position in the Sabah Cabinet if and when Chief Minister-designate Tan Sri Bernard Dompok carries out a reshuffle upon succeeding out-going Chief Minister Datuk Yong Teck Lee. Page 1
2. KOTA KINABALU: Japan triathletes came close to dominating the main categories of the Sabah International Triathlon 1998 yesterday when they emerged the winner of the International Men's as well as runners-up in the International Women's categories. Page 1

3. KOTA KINABALU: Kinabalu Member of Parliament Henrynus Amin said Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) should increase the number of places for eligible students from Sabah for the 1998-99 academic year because of the high costs involved for Sabah students undergoing matriculation or pre-university programmes in Peninsular Malaysia. Page 2

Bername
25/05/98
bns