

SARAWAK NEWSPAPERS HIGHLIGHTS
28 MAY 1998

THE BORNEO POST:
-----

1. KUALA LUMPUR: The Federal Government will persuade the Sabah and Sarawak governments to enforce uniform labour laws, the Dewan Negara was told yesterday. Page 1
2. TORONTO: Malaysia will not abandon ongoing infrastrucutre projects because the government is committed towards the completion of those projects, Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim said Tuesday. Page 1
3. KUALA LUMPUR: The Judiciary will be amending the Court Rules to streamline the process of case management, Chief Justice of the Federal Court Tun Mohamed Eusoff Chin said. Page 2
4. KOTA KINABALU: The quota of ministerial representation of the various communities and reshuffle of ministers in the State Barisan Nasional government will only be known after the new chief minister is sworn in tomorrow. Page 4

SARAWAK TRIBUNE:
-----

1. KOTA KINABALU: Tan Sri Bernard Dompok, who will be sworn in as Sabah's 11th Chief Minister today, is expected to announce his new Cabinet line-up today. Page 1
2. KUALA LUMPUR: The Judiciary will be amending the Court Rules to streamline the process of case management, Chief Justice of the Federal Court Tun Mohamed Eusoff Chin said today. Page 2
3. KOTA BAHARU: The six-day Kelantan Multimedia, Telecommunications and Electronics Exposition '98 (Emtek) to be opened by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad on Friday at Sek Men Chabang Empat, Tumpat, some 20km from here, is expected to introduce village folk to the world of information technology (IT). Page 3
4. KUCHING: The Sarawak Australian Graduates Association (SAGA) here aims to be the premier graduates organisation in Malaysia and play more contributing roles in the social, community, economic and educational development of the State. Page 5

THE PEOPLE'S MIRROR:
-----

1. KUCHING: With tears streaming down her face, wetting the front of her blue T-shirt, Chuchun Babeng, 40, of Kampung Kujang Plaman in upper Serian District, sobbed uncontrollably yesterday inside the mortuary of Sarawak General Hospital. Page 1
2. KUCHING: Local passenger van operators are not in favour of a suggestion they move from their present terminal to an area near Sungai Maong or across river at Kubah Ria. Page 5
3. KUALA LUMPUR: The Petrol Dealers Association of Malaysia yesterday urged the government to enforce the self service regulation at petrol stations in all major towns in the country from June 1 as scheduled. Page 9
4. KUALA LUMPUR: Economic Adviser to the Government Tun Daim Zainuddin said yesterday government assistance to problem-riddlen companies should be governed by three criteria which include national interest. Page 10

Bername
28/05/98
bns