

SUN HIGHLIGHTS: JAN. 2
02 JANUARY 1998

1. KUALA LUMPUR: The Government will review all highway toll concessions in view of the current economic situation. page 1;
 2. KUALA LUMPUR: A fund amounting to RM10 million will be set up to promote export opportunities for small and medium-scale industries (SMIs). page 2;
 3. KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysians must have confidence in the country's ability to produce world-class products, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad said. page 2;
 4. PETALING JAYA: The second link which can cope with the movement of 200,000 vehicles a day is set to open tomorrow, after eighth years of construction costing RM1.64 billion for the Malaysian side. page 3;
 5. KLANG: The decision of the Department of Environmental (DOE) to clean up floating oil slicks only after they hit the beaches is the best method to tackle the problem. page 10;
 6. KUALA LUMPUR: Kedah Menteri Besar Tan Sri Sanusi Junid has been actively promoting the state, especially Langkawi, in Saudi Arabia, said Malaysia's consul-general in Jeddah, Syed Hussein al-Habshee. page 12;
 7. KUALA LUMPUR: The National Union of the Teaching Profession (NUTP) welcomes the governments decision not to order the resitting of three SPM examination papers although there was a leak. page 12
- Bernama

02/01/98 09-41MST

bns