

THE PEOPLE'S MIRROR HIGHLIGHTS
04 MARCH 1998

1. KUCHING: The next time you pluck or even break a plant in a city park, whether out of spite or love, or just because your fidgety hands must do something, there is a possibility that you might also break the hearts of some DBKU gardeners. Lead story

2. KUCHING: Three persons found to be involved in corrupt practices during the 1996 Sarawak Election for the Bukit Begunan constituency will still need to answer charges as to why action could not be taken against them for the act. Page 4

3. KOTA SAMARAHAN: Pos Malaysia will consider the request of villagers who live by Jalan Datuk Mohd Musa and who want letters delivered right to their doorsteps. Page 6

4. PETALING JAYA: The balance of the one-month salary bonus for civil servants, due in April, will be paid as long as the government is able to do so, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad says. Page 9

bns