

THE STAR HIGHLIGHTS
29 MAY 1998

1. ISLAMABAD: Pakistan conducted its first nuclear test yesterday, drawing condemnation from some countries and swift moves on sanctions from the United States. Page 1
2. KUALA LUMPUR: The Government will continue to deport Indonesian illegal immigrants despite the situation in Malaysia's neighbour, Deputy Home Minister Datuk Mohd Tajol Rosli Ghazali said yesterday. Page 1
3. KOTA KINABALU: Former Chief Minister Datuk Yong Teck Lee said his re-appointment into the state Cabinet was a "new feeling" for him. Page 2
4. KUALA LUMPUR: Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad has warned Asian youths against absolute capitalism now emerging as new and powerful ideology to the extent that it can overthrow governments and cause economic disaster. Page 2
5. BRISBANE: Former Selangor Menteri Besar Tan Sri Muhammad Muhammad Taib had nothing to gain from breaking Australian currency laws, his lawyer said in closing submissions at the District Court yesterday. Page 3
6. KUALA LUMPUR: Police want university freshmen who feel they have been unduely dealt with during orientation to seek justice by lodging police reports immediately. Page 4
7. KUALA LUMPUR: The public, including scientists will be allowed to scrutinise the results of the Government's experiment to test the effectiveness of the water sprinkler system from highrise buildings in dispersing haze. Page 6
8. KUALA LUMPUR: The MIC has urged the Human Resources Ministry to compel estate owners to pay their workers higher wages and bonus and provide land for cultivation of vegetables. Page 8
9. KUALA LUMPUR: The Human Resources Ministry made public yesterday a videotape which showed MTU secretary-general G. Rajasekaran apparently "discrediting" the country's labour practices abroad two years ago. Page 10
10. ALOR STAR: Kedah, in an unprecedented move, is coming out with a book listing 522 convicted drug pushers in the state. Page 15
11. KUALA LUMPUR: The issue of high interest rates in Singapore banks attracting Malaysian depositors could be discussed between the two governments in their bilateral talks. Page 18
12. KUALA LUMPUR: The transformation of Malaysia Airlines (MAS) into a "virtual" carrier is the thrust of the group's restructuring plan that its executive chairman Tan Sri Tajudin Ramli has in mind. Page 1 (Business)
13. KUALA LUMPUR: The Malaysia Monetary Exchange (MME) wants financial institutions to provide more sophisticated risk management products to companies in these times of volatility in financial markets. Page 3 (Business)

Bernama
29/05/98
bns