US congressmen in KL today

A US Congressional delegation, led by the House National Security Committee chairman Floyd Spence, will arrive in Kuala Lumpur today for a two-day visit to Malaysia. According to a statement issued by the US Embassy in Kuala Lumpur yesterday, the visit by the Congressional delegation is part of their visit to three countries in South-East Asia and the Pacific region. Besides Malaysia, the delegation will also visit Indonesia and Australia. The delegation is scheduled to meet Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and Defence Minister Datuk Syed Hamid Albar during their visit to Malaysia. They are expected to discuss US-Malaysia bilateral ties and share perspectives on regional issues with the Prime Minister and Syed Hamid during the meeting.
