

12/11/1998

VIP guests at science academy gathering

Anna Yusof

THE Malaysian Academy Of Science organised its fourth annual dinner at the Mayangsari Grand Ballroom J.W. Marriot Hotel Kuala Lumpur recently.

The academy was established under the Academy of Science Act 1994 which came into force in February 1995 with the objective of pursuing, encouraging and enhancing the fields of science, engineering and technology for the development of the nation and the benefit of mankind.

Guest-of-honour Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and wife Datin Seri Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali attended.

Present at the dinner were its president Tan Sri Dr Omar Abdul Rahman, Mimos Bhd government sector vice-president Dr Mohamed Awang Lah and Technology and Enviroment Minister Datuk Law Hieng Ding.

KTA Tenaga Sdn Bhd consultant engineers A. Rajaratnam and C.P. Chong, Bronion Construction Sdn Bhd managing director Jacob Yu and Malaysian Palm Oil Promotion Council public relations and promotions head Belvinder K. Sron were also seen.

Also there were Ernst & Young partner Sukanta Dutt and wife Susan, Perkhidmatan Rundingan Industri Malaysia advisor consultant Mohd Nur Ahmad and its marketing manager Burhanuddin Omar, Foster Wheeler project manager J. Williams and its electrical senior design supervisor Michael R. Jones.

Also seen were University Putra Malaysia bio-technology lecturer Dr Hari Krishna and its senior research scientist Jenni and Palm Oil Research Institute of Malaysia head (product development and quality) Dr Kalyana Sundram.

(END)