Dr M to follow polls results at Umno HQ

KUALA LUMPUR, Sun. - Barisan Nasional chairman Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad will follow the "live" announcements of the general election results tomorrow night at the Umno headquarters in Menara Dato' Onn.

Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi and other leaders are expected to join the Prime Minister. Dr Mahathir and the leaders are expected to return to the Federal capital after casting their votes in the morning.

BN executive secretary Datuk Yaacob Mohamed said Dr Mahathir was expected to give a Press conference when the coalition secured enough seats to form the government and another when the two-thirds majority was obtained.
