Election fever proves infectious

POLLS EXCITEMENT HEIGHTENS ... With just 55 days left to the mandatory dissolution of the Sabah Legislative Assembly, election fever is in the air.

One party, a Barisan Nasional component member, the Sabah Progressive Party has its own way of "heating things up".

About 10 giant billboards with the photograph of SAPP president Datuk Yong Teck Lee have been erected within the Kota Kinabalu municipality.

All were plastered with giant photographs of a smiling Yong while some also have smaller snaps of him in the company of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad, Chief Minister Tan Sri Bernard Dompok and former Chief Minister Datuk Salleh Tun Said.

Written across the billboards are "Yong Teck Lee - Your Assemblyman" in English, Bahasa Malaysia and Chinese.

Yong, now a Minister in the Chief Minister's Department, is the Assemblyman for Likas.
