FOUR CORPORATE LEADERS RECEIVE ITM ALUMNI AWARDS

SHAH ALAM, Aug 26 (Bernama) -- Four corporate leaders who had studied at Institut Teknologi Mara today received the ITM Alumni Personality Award from the prime minister.

They are DRB-Hicom Group chairman Tan Sri Salleh Sulong, KLSE president Datuk Salleh Majid, FA Peninsular Bhd managing director Datuk Fasri Samsudin and Amim Holdings Sdn Bhd general manager for sales Aishah Ahmad.

The four were conferred the award by the ITM Alumni in recognition of their success in their career and contributions to the nation's economy.

Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad presented them the award at a mammoth gathering with ITM students at Stadium Malawati here.

Salleh Sulong graduated from ITM with a Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (UK) qualification in 1974 and is now a director of several companies.

Salleh Majid who obtained a Diploma in Business Studies from ITM in 1969 had also lectured at the institute.

Fasri graduated with a Diploma in Building Economics in 1973 before going abroad for further studies while Aishah left ITM with a Chartered Institute of Transport (UK) qualification.
