HEADS OF GOVERNMENT VISIT PUTRAJAYA

PUTRAJAYA, July 28 (Bernama) -- Three heads of government and representatives of developing countries who attended the just-concluded Langkawi International Dialogue visited the new federal administrative capital of Putrajaya here today.

They were greeted on arrival at the Prime Minister Department's Complex by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

The heads of government were Sudanese President Omar Ahmad El-Bashir, Mozambique President Joaquim A. Chissano and Lesotho Prime Minister P. Mosisili.

Others included Ghana Vice President Prof J.E.A. Mills, South African Deputy President Jacob Zuma and Jordanian Finance Minister Dr Michel Marto.

Dr Mahathir gave them a tour of the complex including his office.

They also had a panoramic view of Putrajaya from the sixth floor of the building.

The visitors, accompanied by Dr Mahathir, then toured the Putra Mosque which faces a man-made lake.

Earlier, on arrival from Langkawi, they visited the nearby Multimedia University in Cyberjaya, the futuristic intelligent city.
