

01/05/1999

LID '99 to stress smart partnership

THE Fourth Langkawi International Dialogue from July 25-28 will have as its general objective the promotion of smart partnerships in managing economic recovery.

Hence its theme of "Managing Economic Recovery for Shared Prosperity - The Smart Partnership Approach".

This was told to reporters during a Press conference at the Prime Minister's Department yesterday by Tan Sri Dr Omar Abdul Rahman, who is joint-chairman of the Malaysian Industry-Government Group for High Technology (MIGHT), co-organiser of LID '99.

The other organiser is the London-based Commonwealth Partnership for Technology Management represented by chief executive Datuk Dr Mihaela Y. Smith. There will be a special session on communication with the media as a smart partnership.

The dialogue officially opened by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

Dr Mahathir, as the host patron and advisor of LID '99, will also deliver a keynote address on July 25.

(END)