

27/08/1999

MAC launch marked by charitable deed

Ida Aziz

MAKE-UP Art Cosmetics or MAC celebrated its launch in Malaysia in style recently.

Held at Lot 10, the event was attended by fashion and cosmetics industry people and local personalities.

Guest-of-honour was Malaysian AIDS Council president Datin Paduka Marina Mahathir, who accepted a mock cheque, for RM10,000, on behalf of the Malaysian AIDS Foundation from the MAC AIDS Fund.

Present were Suria Meriang Sdn Bhd managing director Robert Kot, Isetan Kuala Lumpur managing director Toshiyuki Asano, director-cum-general manager Shinichi Matsuura and fashion director Gillian Hung, MAC Asia Pacific regional director Sandra Main and retail operations manager Chris Lui.

Also present were Clinique brand general manager Sue Ong, senior education and public relations manager Christine Leong, sales manager Yap Wai Mun, training executive Caressa Hanoom, Aramis marketing manager Lee Yoke May and sales executive Joanna Lim.

Others present were Mactrillion Sdn Bhd's Monica Chin, Jupiter Securities Sdn Bhd institutional sales vice-president Tony Shue, Havana Club Sdn Bhd boutique manager Lilian Kang, Nusantara Worldwide Insurance (M) Bhd marketing corporate division senior manager Roslan Danil, and Event Communications (M) Sdn Bhd directors Nancy Khoo and Evelyn Teo.

There too were Simon artistic director Lim Simon, freelance interior designer Tony Hooi, Valentine Willie Fine Art owner Valentine Willie, KLCC (Holdings) Bhd registered valuer and estate agent Faudziah Ibrahim, TNB Generation Sdn Bhd audit senior manager Muhammad Hasnul Ariffin, SBI Management Consultants Sdn Bhd managing director Shamsudin Ismail, and Oracle Systems Malaysia Sdn Bhd business development manager Salasiah Yahya.

(END)