Malaysia: Free, united, successful

FULL text of Barisan Nasional manifesto

Malaysia's strong adherence to the principle of democracy by holding the general elections on schedule after 42 years of Independence has enabled the country to wave the flag of Independence and sovereignty of the dignity of the people, religion, and national through outstanding achievement in politics, economy and social aspects.

The November 29 1999 elections will once again give the people the opportunity to maintain, consolidate and continue the achievement in a bigger way by giving a vote of confidence to the Barisan Nasional which has proven its results and benefits through smart partnerships on the basis of co-operation, consensus, tolerance and identity among the races. I strongly believe in the wisdom of the people of Malaysia to make the best choice. - Dr. Mahathir Mohamad
