PPP to focus on solidarity for a BN victory

KUALA LUMPUR, Sat. - The People's Progressive Party will focus on solidarity among members to ensure a Barisan Nasional victory in the general election. President Datuk M. Kayveas said this would be relayed to members at the party's 46th annual general meeting at Pusat Islam on Monday, which will be officiated by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

The assembly will be attended by 3,200 delegates and 600 observers including heads of Barisan Nasional component parties. The party says it has a membership of 250,000.

In Ipoh today, Kayveas said resolutions would include supporting monthly wages for estate workers and development of healthcare facilities.
