Bureau augurs well for Umno

Bulbir Singh

IT seems we have another Michael Chong in the making. This time it could be Azalina Othman Said, of Umno's newly-formed Civil Action Bureau.

This bureau was launched last week by Umno president and Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad to drive home the message that Umno is serious about this set-up, which should initially cater for some 35,000 factory workers in Sungei Way with a multitude of problems.

Umno is becoming service-orientated and that augers well for this party. I hope it will, like the MCA complaints bureau, look after all others too. I hope other Barisan Nasional component parties see this need and act likewise, with speed.
