Dr M's message bold and timely, say leaders

VICE-PRESIDENTS:

"THE president's address was extraordinary - we must realise that Umno needs to return to basics amidst threats from within and outside before it is too late.

That is why it is important for Umno to work towards uniting all its members. It is also important for us to practice noble values so that we can be successful globally.

The president's call in reviving the party's struggle is timely and if we use his address as a guide, I believe Umno will continue to be strong and relevant today and in the future.

On Anwar's issue, it is to ensure and clarify to delegates and members that Dr Mahathir's decision was not personal and that it is his responsibility to ensure the party has capable and qualified leaders with high morals."
