

28/09/2000

Hospital hosts lantern festival for senior citizens

GLEANEAGLES Intan Medical Centre Kuala Lumpur celebrated the Lantern Festival in a colourful evening that included a special Chinese opera performance held at its premises recently.

Twenty-five senior citizens from Selangor King George V Silver Jubilee Old Folk's Home joined the hospital staff. Guest-of-honour was Datin Paduka Rosemary Chong, who is patron of Yik Sang Singing Amateur Society.

Following dinner, gifts comprising carnations and mooncakes, were distributed by Gleneagles Medical Centre CEO Stuart J.V. Pack and Yik Sang Amateur Singing Society president Jessie Lee Pooi Yee to the guests.

Gleneagles Medical Centre Kuala Lumpur was officially opened by the Prime Minister Datuk Dr Mahathir Mohamad on Dec 17, 1997.

The centre is a joint-venture between Tan & Tan Developments Berhad, Gleneagles (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd, Insas Berhad and PNB Equity Resource Corporation Sdn Bhd.

(END)