I've not seen it, says Hadi

KUALA TERENGGANU, Tues. - Pas deputy president Abdul Hadi Awang today denied he had any knowledge of a book claiming that Prophet Muhammad was the first president of an Islamic party.

"I have not seen the book nor do I know the identity of the writer. I cannot comment until I have read the book," said the Terengganu Menteri Besar after the adjournment of the State Assembly.

Umno president Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad yesterday revealed a book in circulation which claims that Prophet Muhammad was the first president of an Islamic party.

The Prime Minister said the book was another example of how Pas insulted Islam for its own political ends.
