Kuan Yew for four-day working visit to Malaysia

KUALA LUMPUR, Fri. - Singapore Senior Minister Lee Kuan Yew will make a four-day working visit to Malaysia from Monday, his first since handing over the premiership to Goh Chok Tong in 1990.

A Wisma Putra statement said he would meet Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi.

Lee, who will be accompanied by his wife and several officials, will visit the Petronas Twin Towers, the Kuala Lumpur International Airport and Putrajaya.

Besides witnessing developments that have taken place in Malaysia for the past 10 years, the visit is also intended to enhance Malaysia-Singapore bilateral relations.
