

09 JUL 2000

MAHA 2000 EXPECTS TO ATTRACT A MILLION VISITORS

KUALA LUMPUR, July 9 (Bernama) -- The second Malaysian Agricultural, Horticultural and Agrotourism exhibition (Maha 2000), to be held for nine days starting July 22 at the Stadium Putra in Bukit Jalil here, is expected to attract a million visitors.

Maha 2000 will showcase the latest in technology and innovation in the agricultural sector.

Some 8,000 people are expected to attend the opening of Maha 2000 by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad on July 22, held in conjunction with the National Farmers, Livestock Rearers and Fishermen Day celebration.

Maha 2000 is organised by the Agriculture Ministry.

In a statement here today, the organisers said the entrance fees are RM3 for adults and RM1 for children.

Three main segments of the exhibition are on commodities and industry development, on research and development and on new products/industry.

-- BERNAMA

AR ZS THG