RM10,000 boost for AIDS Foundation

THE Austrian-German-Swiss Charity Group has contributed RM10,000 to the Malaysian AIDS Foundation - the sum which it hopes to raise from a Christmas bazaar it will be holding tomorrow at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel.

President of the group Lillian Muzel-Kiviet handed over a cheque for the said amount to the Malaysian AIDS Foundation president Datin Paduka Marina Mahathir recently.

The bazaar, open from 10am to 1.30pm will provide visitors an opportunity to purchase a variety of handicraft and decorative items from as little as RM6 to RM150.

Visitors can also buy an assortment of home-made cookies, candies, traditional cakes and other Christmas delicacies.

Chefs of the Mandarin Oriental have prepared a delicious Christmas lunch spread that will take visitors on a culinary journey through Europe.

There will also be booths selling second-hand books.

The choirs from the German School Kuala Lumpur and from Kuala Lumpur's various churches will sing traditional and contemporary Christmas carols.

Muzel said all the handicraft at the bazaar were made by the Austrian-German and Swiss ladies.

The entrance cum raffle ticket costing RM12 is available at the door during the bazaar.
