Six express gratitude for securing their release

KOTA KINABALU, Fri. - Six Malaysians who were recently freed by armed rebels in Jolo, Philippines, today expressed their gratitude to the Government.

Speaking on behalf of the six, Sabah Wildlife Department ranger Francis Masangkim said they also felt honoured that Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad had met them during his working visit to Sabah which ended today.

He also expressed his gratitude to Chief Minister Datuk Osu Sukam and the Sabah Government.
