

STAR - 7 MAY 2001
PM's song nets RM350,000

KUALA LUMPUR: Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad sang an oldie at the dinner of the Malaysia Crime Prevention Foundation last night.

The song Come Back to Sorentto netted RM350,000 from generous donors for the foundation.

Earlier, the Prime Minister joked that he would make a serious attempt at singing to show that "besides making nasty speeches, I can also sing nasty songs."

"Please don't laugh when you hear it. If not, I will turn my back.

I'm very sensitive," he quipped.

Three individuals received excellent service awards for their contributions to the foundation.

They are Datuk Lee Lam Thye, Datuk William Lim Wei Tee and Hassan Othman.

Dr Mahathir is the patron of the foundation.

In his speech, he said the public should be willing to testify about criminal activities in their area.

The foundation received contributions amounting to RM2mil last night.