

Mahathir goes to Cheju for a break

SEOUL: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad arrived yesterday at South Korea's southern resort island of Cheju for a rest after the Asia-Pacific Economic Co-operation summit in Shanghai, officials said.

"This is a strictly private visit," an official of the Malaysian embassy here said.

Dr Mahathir would not have any official schedule but would take some rest before flying to Tokyo today, he said.

Officials of South Korea's foreign ministry said some 20 members was in Dr Mahathir's entourage. —
