A haven of peace and solitude

HIDEAWAY ... Far from the madding crowd, the Paya Indah Wetlands, to be opened this Saturday, is a haven of peace and solitude.

This gazebo known as "The Tea House" overlooks a lake where visitors can enjoy boat rides.

An interesting feature is the use of railway sleepers (wooden bars in between railway tracks) in the pathway. The wetland park will be launched by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and opened to the public from Oct 14.

Located in Dengkil, Selangor, it is accessible from the Damansara-Puchong, Elite and Seremban highways.
