Dewan adjourned

THE Dewan Rakyat was adjourned sine die after being in session from Oct 8. The highlight of the sitting was the tabling of the Supply Bill 2001 by Prime Minister and Finance Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad on Oct 19.

Other Bills passed were the Film Censorship Bill 2001, the Finance Bill 2001, Industrial Designs (Amendment) Bill 2001, Copyright (Amendment) Bill 2001 and the Housing Developers (Control and Second Licensing) (Amendment) Bill 2001.

The sitting also saw Fong Po Kuan (DAP-Batu Gajah) suspended for six months without pay, the first in Parliamentary history.

BN Kinabatangan member Datuk Bung Moktar Radin was also censured for uttering a four-letter word during a heated debate with the Opposition.

The House will sit again in March.
