Enduring magic of Oxbridge

Tony Phillips; Sharifah Arfah

THE luncheon date with Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad on the eve of the 44th anniversary of Merdeka organised by the Oxford and Cambridge Society of Malaysia at the Grand Ballroom of Sunway Lagoon Resort Hotel in Subang Jaya was a sell-out. Dr Mahathir was in excellent form because he spoke impromptu.

The question-and-answer session was incisive and engaging in the great Oxbridge tradition of the debating unions. For Oxbridge Society members and their guests, it was an intellectual discourse to remember.

An Oxbridge party always rekindles nostalgia, the longing to go back to the good old days when there was neither good nor old!
