ILO chief calls on Dr Mahathir

PUTRAJAYA, Thurs. - International Labour Organisation director-general Juan Somavia called on Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad at the Prime Minister's office here today.

Somavia, who was accompanied by Human Resources Minister Datuk Dr Fong Chan Onn and Malaysian Trades Union Congress president Senator Zainal Rampak, spent an hour with Dr Mahathir.

Speaking later, Somavia said they discussed ILO's current direction and strategies covering employment creation, promotion of workers and enhancing dialogue between the Government, employers and employees.

Somavia said they also discussed the effects of globalisation on the labour market.
