King, Queen send greetings to Indonesia

KUALA LUMPUR, Thurs. - The Yang di-Pertuan Agong Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah and the Raja Permaisuri Agong Tuanku Siti Aishah have sent a congratulatory message to Indonesian President Megawati Soekarnoputri in conjunction with the republic's 56th independence day tomorrow.

The King was thankful that relations between both countries was good.

He expressed the hope that this relationship, based on the spirit of neighbourliness, would be further improved for the betterment of both nations in future.

"I am confident Indonesia will continue to prosper under your leadership.

"I pray that both you and Taufiq Kiemas (Megawati's husband) will always be in good health and protected by Allah," he said.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad also sent a similar message to Megawati and the Indonesian people.
