Orang Asli families to get bungalows

UNDER the resettlement package offered by the Government, each of the 147 Bukit Lanjan Orang Asli families would be allocated a bungalow, plus a double-storey terrace house while a selected group of children aged 15 and above, would be given an apartment each.

In addition, each of the 147 families is also given RM45,000 worth of Amanah Saham Bumiputera unit trusts and monthly living allowances of RM500 pending the handing over of their respective bungalows.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad is scheduled to hand over keys to owners of the bungalows built by Saujana Triangle Sdn Bhd in Damansara Perdana on Nov 16.
