

Mohamed Rahmat is singer of the day

Nst 3 0 MAR 2002

SHAH ALAM, Fri. - Barisan Nasional secretary-general Tan Sri Mohamed Rahmat spared organisers of the Selangor BN Convention the blushes today when he took the microphone and led the audience in a rendition of the party's official song when the sound system failed. Mohamed might not be a professional singer, but he succeeded to garner a standing ovation for his performance, including from Prime Minister and BN chairman Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad who opened the convention. The atmosphere had earlier been one of embarrassed silence when the music failed to start up after three tries. The audience tried to sing without the aid of the taped music, but failed miserably. Mohamed then grabbed the microphone and led the crowd. The audience managed to hit the correct notes, thanks to the secretary-general-turned-singer.
