

Dr M reveals secret of Malaysia's Success

Nst - 6 APR 2002

LANGKAWI, Fri. Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad tonight attributed the success of the country to a harmonious population and efficient civil service, administrative and business community.

Speaking at a "Thank you Prime Minister" gathering at the Mahsuri International Exhibition Centre here, the Prime Minister took the opportunity to thank all Malaysians.

"As we know, Malaysia is a multi-racial country and although we are of different races and religions we still live in peace and harmony. Without Malaysians such as this, I would not have been able to develop the country to where it is now."

Dr Mahathir said he was also thankful to the collective efforts of an efficient administration.

"We are also thankful to the Menteri Besar, Exco members, State administration, Dewan Rakyat members, as well as the Dewan Negara for their efforts."

In addition, the Prime Minister took the opportunity to express his gratitude to the business community for its contributions to the country's development.

The gathering was organised by the Langkawi Barisan Nasional.

Also present were BN and Kedah Government officials, including Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Syed Razak Syed Zain and Kuah State Assemblyman Tan Sri Sanusi Junid, who is also Langkawi BN chairman.
