

Journalists to receive MPI awards on June 2

KUALA LUMPUR: About 40 print and electronic journalists will receive prizes from Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad at the Malaysian Press Awards here on June 2.

The awards, organised by the Malaysian Press Institute and sponsored by Petronas, will be held at the Putra World Trade Centre.

Divided into various categories and languages, the awards are worth a total of RM150,000. The top two prizes - the Kajai Award and Outstanding Journalist - are worth RM10,000 each.

Petronas has supported the awards since 1994. This time, two other sponsors, Nokia and Islamic Economic Development Foundation (YPEIM), are contributing prizes to two new categories - Information and Communication Technology and Islamic Socio-Economy.

More than 50 media and corporate bodies are expected to be represented at the event.
