BELGIAN PRINCESS VISITS MALAYSIAN AIDS COUNCIL

KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 27 (Bernama) -- Princess Mathilde of Belgium took time off from her tight itinerary today to visit the Malaysian Aids Council.

She was greeted on arrival by the council's president, Datin Paduka Marina Mahathir.

During the one-hour visit, she was briefed by Marina on its activities to help Aids/HIV victims in the country.

Princess Mathilde is accompanying her husband, Crown Prince Philippe, on a five-day economic mission. They arrived here on Saturday.

Tomorrow, the royal couple is scheduled to visit Perak where they will visit the Sultan of Perak Sultan Azlan Shah at Istana Iskandariah.
