BN to decide on Jan 31

KOTA KINABALU, Sun. - The Barisan Nasional supreme council will meet on Jan 31 to decide on the application by Parti Bersatu Sabah to rejoin the coalition.

Prime Minister and BN chairman Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad will chair the meeting in which all 13 component members will attend.

PBS president Datuk Seri Joseph Pairin Kitingan and his deputy Dr Maximus Ongkili submitted to Dr Mahathir on Nov 15 last year.

The New Straits Times learnt that the BN was unable to meet earlier due to the death of the then Yang di Pertuan Agong, Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah, and the BN component party leaders who had gone on leave.
