Civil service bonus in two instalments, says Finance Ministry

KUALA LUMPUR, Tues. - The one-month bonus for civil servants announced at the tabling of Budget 2003 by Finance Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad will be paid in two instalments.

The Finance Ministry said in a statement today said the first payment would be made in the October salary, and payment in the December salary.

The Treasury will be paying out a total of RM1.07 billion on this account to about one million civil servants.
