Dr M attends orchestra performance by students

KUALA LUMPUR, Wed. - Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad tonight attended an orchestra performance by Kolej Yayasan Saad students at Istana Budaya in Jalan Tun Razak.

Also present were his wife Datuk Seri Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali and Saad Foundation chairman Tan Sri Halim Saad.

The performance by 83 musicians, comprising Form One to Form Five students and 11 ex-Form Five students, before 1,300 people was the biggest ever hosted by Istana Budaya.

The orchestra played classical, contemporary, evergreen and Mandarin songs as well as the popular Kuch Kuch Hota Hai.

It also dedicated the late Tan Sri P. Ramlee's Di Mana Kan Ku Cari Ganti to the Prime Minister.

Kolej Yayasan Saad is a fully residential private school in Malacca set up by the foundation. It is renowned for its orchestra which was formed at the end of 1998.
