

23/09/2002

Sikhs should unite under one banner

B.S.

I REFER to the Special Report in New Sunday Times (Sept 15) on the Sikh community in Malaysia.

The majority of Sikhs in Malaysia have always supported the Barisan Nasional, as the coalition has taken good care of the minority communities.

I also note that the writer mentioned in his article that in 1999, 18 Sikh bodies pledged their support for the BN and Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

This was a shining example of our allegiance to the Government.

However, to better serve the community and the Government, I suggest that these 18 bodies, some which of exist in name only, come under one