Khatami ends visit with tour of the Twin Towers

KUALA LUMPUR, Wed. - Iranian President Mohammad Khatami completed his three-day visit here with a briefing at the Multimedia Development Corporation (MDC) in Cyberjaya and a tour of the Petronas Twin Towers today.

Khatami and his wife, Zohreh Sadeqi, also received a farewell call from Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and Datuk Seri Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel where he was staying.

Khatami then had a farewell audience with the Yang di-Pertuan Agong Tuanku Syed Sirajuddin Putra Jamalullail at Istana Negara before leaving from the Kuala Lumpur International Airport.

The Iranian leader was here at the invitation of the King. He was accompanied by a 90-member delegation comprising government officials and businessmen. Khatami's hectic schedule included closed-door bilateral talks with Dr Mahathir and the witnessing of memorandums of understanding between Malaysia and Iran.
